

Gynaecology service

The Community Gynaecology service aims to provide a friendly high quality service for benign gynaecological conditions, providing specialist care in different community settings adhering to the principles of “Care closer to Home”.

We are able to manage the following conditions:

- Menopause and premenstrual syndrome management
- Management of abnormal uterine bleeding
- Vaginal prolapse / urinary incontinence
- Difficult IUD / IUS fit and removals
- Complex contraceptive problems
- Benign vulval disorders
- Sterilisation requests

Purpose of processing

Leeds Community Healthcare through the gynaecology service provides a care service for benign gynaecological conditions. This requires the processing of patient data. The reasons for processing patient data are:

- To maintain accurate clinical records
- Recording of prescriptions given
- To be able to effectively provide treatment to the patient
- Electronic Personnel files

Source of data:

- Leeds Teaching Hospitals PAS
- SystemOne (LCH's patient management system)

Categories of recipient

- Gynaecology service
- Patient
- Leeds Teaching Hospitals

Categories of Personal Data

- Patient Name
- NHS Number
- Address
- DOB
- Appointment date

Legal basis of processing

For GDPR purposes Leeds community healthcare's lawful basis for processing is Article 6(1)e '...exercise of official authority...' and Article 6(1)(b) – '...for the performance of a contract to which the data subject is party...' and also Article 6(1)(c) – where processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation to which the controller is subject.

For the processing of special categories (health) data the basis is Article 9(2)(h) – '...health or social care...'. Where we process special categories data for employment or safeguarding purposes the condition is Article 9(2)(b) – processing is necessary for the purposes of carrying out the obligations and exercising specific rights of the controller or of the data subject in the field of employment and social security and social protection law...