Useful website links for supporting people who stammer

The following websites are recommended by our Stammering Support Service for useful information about supporting people who stammer.

Stamma (British Stammering Association) www.stamma.org

Information and support for people who stammer, parents, families and professionals

- www.stamma.org/resources/video-audio: videos for parents about stammering and how to support your child who stammers
- https://stamma.org/your-voice: stories from people who stammer about job hunting, dating, university and more. Helpful for young people and young adults

Action for Stammering Children www.actionforstammeringchildren.org

Helpful advice for parents, teachers and young people who stammer

  Videos from people talking about their jobs, their career and their stammer Helpful for young people and young adults

Michael Palin Centre: www.michaelpalincentreforstammering.org/

Resources and information for children, young adults, people who stammer, parents, teachers and professionals